The President's Message

THE TIME has now arrived, in which, we, the class of 1964, leave the halls of West Rutland High School, which for the past four years has been our guide light and source of preparation for future plans and goals. This is a time of joy as we strive to meet the various goals to which we are each destined, but it is also a time of sorrow as we leave our friends and teachers who have made our four years successful. Therefore we would like to give our sincerest thanks to our teachers and Mr. Hinchey, who have been like parents to us, watching our growth and development during our high school career.

WILLIAM J. BOUTWELL

Valedictory

HODIE DUCIMUR, CRAS DUCEMUS

TODAY WE FOLLOW, TOMORROW WE LEAD!

FOR THE past four years we have spent most of our time learning the basic fundamentals that will aid us in becoming the leaders of tomorrow. You, our parents, teachers and friends, have done your part. It was you, who gave us a stable foundation, together with the means and opportunities on which to build our future. We are now reaching the point of no return, where we can no longer follow in your footsteps, but instead, must go on, and make the dreams of today become the realities of a new generation.

Our high school diplomas are the keys to the vast warehouse of the future. Each of us has a key to his or her own department in that warehouse. Whether we run our department efficiently, honestly, and with pride; or whether we render it a shambles, will depend on how well we have followed in your footsteps.

We are the leaders of tomorrow. We enlist the aid of God Almighty, to help us become good leaders, so that our children will be as proud of us, as we are of you. As the clear brilliancy of the sun lights our daily path, so will the clear simplicity of our motto influence our characters and attitudes and fit us to pass on to posterity the inevitable truth—"Today we follow, tomorrow we lead."—"Hodie ducimur, cras ducemus."

THOMAS PAUL ORZELL

Salutatory

MR. HINCHEY, MEMBERS OF THE SCHOOL BOARD, DISTINGUISHED GUEST, PARENTS, TEACHERS, FRIENDS:

TO ALL of you, a most sincere welcome to this, our Commencement.

Tonight, our high school years come to a close. Within this very hour we will no longer be West Rutland High School Students; we will be West Rutland High School Alumni. This transition is for each of us a momentous one; and all of a sudden, a realization of its full meaning becomes very sobering—very saddening. Hence, our great gratitude, and genuine appreciation of your spending this all-important hour with us.

For four years we have studied, planned, worked, hoped, dreamed, worried, and achieved—TOGETHER. Through this common effort towards a common goal we have become, in a sense, a unit. And this unity of purpose was, we feel, singularly blessed in that it was accomplished under the unique leadership of that great educator—MR. HINCHEY.

Now the unit disbands. . . . We go our separate ways—each towards his chosen goal. In the pursuit of that goal it is our fervent prayer that by our efforts, and by our success as good and useful citizens we may justify the priceless opportunities that were provided for us here in West Rutland High School by you: our teachers, our parents, our friends.

Class Poem

An important four years in our history is past;
Memories of our friends and teachers will forever last.
The knowledge and experience which we have gained,
Will help to sustain us, until, for our vocation we are trained.
A significant figure leaves a memory invincible—
For we are indebted to Mr. Hinchey, our principal.
Our days at West Rutland High have brought us joy
And as we part there is sadness in each girl and boy.
We look to the future, our hopes high
And give to you a fond goodbye.

Class History

1960-1961

THE DAY, the 4th of September, the year, 1960, the occasion, the first day of high school. Twenty-five boys and twenty-five girls walked nervously around the lockers and halls. After the bell rang, Mr. Hinchey called us into the study hall and assigned us our seats. He then told us about our classes. After the second bell rang fifty freshmen left their seats and quickly scattered in all directions. After a week or so our pattern of action became fairly well known to most of us. The second week brought what all had feared for years, the Freshman Reception. The night finally passed and we settled down to a new way of school life.

The football season was already under way. The Frosh who contributed to our traditional football team were: William Boutwell, Albert Fish, Karl Larson, Robert Pietryka and Richard Werchenski.

To cheer the team on were Esther Carlson, Jean Pietryka and Margaret White.

Our actors and actresses in the One Act Plays were: Carol Dodds, Rose Turner, Margaret White, Robert Foster, Francis Giebutowski, Thomas Orzell, Joseph Przybylo, and John Rogers.

In basketball those who contributed to the J. V. team were: William Boutwell, Peter Burke, Robert Foster, Francis Giebutowski, Robert Pietryka, John Rogers, Francis Taggart and Richard Werchenski.

The girls who participated in the girls' basketball team were: Carol Bailey, Janet Baron, Judy Burney, Esther Carlson, Marilyn Chapman, Jane Kosmider, Dorcas Persons and Margaret White.

As winter drifted in, the band began preparing for their concerts. The members were Janet Baron, Carol Dodds, Betsey Johnson, Jean Pietryka, Rose Turner, Diane Taylor, Margaret White, Francis Giebutowski, Joseph Kurant and John Rogers.

The large number of glee club members who were in the Christmas Concert were Carol Bailey, Janet Baron, Marilyn Chapman, Carol Dodds, Rosemary Fonseca, Virginia Kean, Marilyn Lewis, Jean Pietryka, Rose Turner, Joan Weaver, Francis Giebutowski, Augustyn Gola, John Rogers, Raymond Seigny and Richard Werchenski.

As the snow left, baseball started. Our players were William Boutwell, John Rogers and Richard Werchenski.

The night of Prize Speaking and the Fashion Show soon arrived. Rose Turner and Francis Giebutowski represented our class. The Freshman girls took part in the Fashion Show, modeling their own creations.

The time flew by fast, faster than we had ever seen it move. After exams we were dismissed. With a year of school behind us, and a whole summer ahead of us, we left feeling happy.

1961-1962

THE DAY, the 4th of September, one year later, 1961, the occasion, the second year of high school. We entered the school with a fresh feeling knowing that we were no longer freshmen. We now were sophisticated sophomores. Our class had no officers so the school committee picked the Freshman Reception Committee. The committee worked with relish and zest on the traditional reception. After our night of glory in belittling the freshmen we started a new year at West Side.

Supporting our football team this year were Albert Fish, Karl Larson, Kenneth Grabowski, Robert Pietryka and Richard Werchenski.

This year a Science Club was formed by Mr. O'Leary. The same club later sponsored the science fair. The scientists contributing were Carol Bailey, Esther Carlson, Jane Kosmider, Marilyn Lewis, Jean Pietryka, Diane Taylor, Rose Turner, Margaret White, John Rogers and Raymond Seigny.

The Senior Play was supported by two of our fine male actors: Francis Giebutowski and Thomas Orzell.

Basketball was in full swing now. Our super J. V. Team was supported by Peter Burke, Robert Foster, Francis Giebutowski, Edward Hyjek, John Rogers and Richard Werchenski. Four of our boys were called to help our varsity team. They were William Boutwell, Robert Pietryka, John Rogers and Richard Werchenski.

The basketball team was cheered for by our J. V. Cheerleaders: Janet Baron, Esther Carlson, Jane Kosmider, Jean Pietryka, and Margaret White.

As autumn grew old, the band members started practicing for their concerts. Our class was represented by: Janet Baron, Carol Dodds, Betsey Johnson, Jean Pietryka, Rose Turner, Margaret White, Francis Giebutowski, Joseph Kurant, Thomas Orzell, Joseph Przybylo and John Rogers.

The glee club also started to tune up for the Christmas Concert. Our members were: Helen Austin, Carol Bailey, Marilyn Chapman, Carol Dodds, Rosemary Fonseca, Betsey Johnson, Virginia Kean, Jane Kosmider, Marilyn Lewis, Connie Pecor, Jean Pietryka, Diane Taylor, Joan Weaver, Francis Giebutowski, Augustyn Gola, Thomas Orzell, Joseph Przybylo, John Rogers, Raymond Seigny and Richard Werchenski.

The majorettes were honored with having the presence of two of our girls: Esther Carlson and Jean Pietryka.

Our actors and actresses in the One Act Plays were: Carol Dodds, Betsey Johnson, Jane Kosmider, Jean Pietryka, Rose Turner, Margaret White, Francis Giebutowski, Thomas Orzell, John Rogers and Richard Werchenski.

Shortly after snow left the athletic field, the baseball season got under way. The boys who supplied their talent were William Boutwell, Robert Foster, Edward Hyjek and Karl Larson.

The boys that gained recognition in their sport and joined the Varsity Club are William Boutwell, Karl Larson and Robert Pietryka.

Exams came and went before we knew it. Our sophomore year seemed to pass twice as fast as our Freshman year. Our vacation here and school ended we decided to enjoy the summer and rest up for our Junior year.

1962-1963

SUMMER was finally over and we began to prepare for the second half of our high school education. We lost two of our classmates, Sandra O'Bara, and Constance Pecor, but we gained a new classmate, Glenna Potter.

Three new teachers joined our faculty. They were Miss Nancy Yager, instructor in typewriting, shorthand and office practice; Mr. John Kelley, English III and IV, and French I and II; and Mr. Charles Wise, commercial teacher.

When autumn came several of our boys prepared for the football season. The members representing our class on the team were Albert Fish, Kenneth Grabowski, Robert Pietryka, Karl Larson, Richard Werchenski, and John Rogers as assistant manager.

Our boys were cheered on to victory by our cheerleaders who were Janet Baron, Esther Carlson, Marilyn Chapman, Jean Pietryka, and Margaret White.

Before we knew it, it was One-Act Play time again. Our class participants were Francis Giebutowski, Virginia Kean, Thomas Orzell, Jean Pietryka, Rose Turner, Richard Werchenski, and Margaret White.

Christmas time came and Mr. Ianni held our annual Christmas concert. Our class members in the band this year were Janet Baron, Carol Dodds, Francis Giebutowski, Betsey Johnson, Joseph Kurant, Thomas Orzell, Jean Pietryka, Joseph Przybylo, John Rogers, Raymond Seigny, Rose Turner, and Margaret White.

Then came basketball season, and the boys representing our class were William Boutwell, Robert Pietryka, John Rogers and Richard Werchenski.

Next came Mid-year exams—with juniors studying—we proudly passed them. Now we began to prepare for our second half of our junior year.

Our next big event was the second annual Science Fair under Donald O'Leary of the Science Department. First prize was won by Rose Turner and Raymond Seigny, our classmates.

Our junior classmate, Richard Werchenski won first prize in the Prize Speaking contest.

June arrived and suddenly came the day when we proudly stood up for the senior class.

We then went home with the sureness that now we were seniors, and with this knowledge we went into our summer vacation.

1963-1964

THIS WAS the big year. We had finally reached our goal, we were seniors and we proudly told everyone we knew.

Mr. John Gibbud was our new science instructor.

We lost a classmate, Glenna Potter, this year.

We held our first class meeting under the supervision of Miss Bernice Hinchey, our homeroom teacher. Our class officers were President, Bill Boutwell; Vice President, Margaret White; Secretary, Virginia Kean; and Treasurer, Jean Pietryka. Almost immediately we voted on our yearbook, committees, and graduation announcements and name cards.

Our classmates on the football team were John Rogers, Albert Fish, Kenneth Grabowski, Karl Larson, Robert Pietryka, Raymond Sevigny and Richard Werchenski.

Participants in the Senior Play were Thomas Orzell, Rose Turner, Francis Giebutowski, Virginia Kean, Carol Dodds, Esther Carlson, Margaret White, Jane Kosmider, Dick Werchenski, Robert Pietryka, John Rogers, Bill Boutwell, and Kenneth Grabowski, stage manager.

Mr. Ianni led our band in the Christmas concert. Our classmates in the band were Janet Baron, Carol Dodds, Francis Giebutowski, Betsey Johnson, Joseph Kurant, Jean Pietryka, Joseph Przybylo, Rose Turner, and Margaret White.

Our teammates on the basketball team were William Boutwell, Robert Foster, Francis Giebutowski as manager, Robert Pietryka, John Rogers, and Richard Werchenski.

At mid-year time our thoughts turned serious as we realized that we had only a half a year left at West Rutland High School, but our morale picked up as everybody prepared his projects for our third Science Fair, which this year was supervised by Mr. Gibbud. The seniors who participated in the science club this year were Helen Austin, Janet Baron, Bill Boutwell, Marilyn Chapman, Francis Giebutowski, Betsey Johnson, Virginia Kean, Karl Larson, Marilyn Lewis, Thomas Orzell, Dorcas Persons, Jean Pietryka, John Rogers, Raymond Sevigny, Diane Taylor, Rose Turner, Richard Werchenski, and Margaret White. Two of our classmates received prizes. Diane Taylor won second prize and Dick Werchenski won third prize.

And as that time was getting nearer, we were preparing ourselves for that final night when we would leave West Rutland High School. We were sad, but happy and proud as we prepared ourselves for what was yet to come.

Class Prophecy

IT IS the year 2004, and we are now entering the lavishly furnished office of the famous producer and director, Joe Przybylo. Everyone remembers how Joe got his first start at WHWB on the West Proctor Road. His lovely secretaries, Janet Baron, Marilyn Chapman, and Dianne Taylor are at his side taking dictation. His assistant directors, Albert Fish and Francis Giebutowski, have just entered the room to assist him in planning his next great TV show.

Joe hopes to bring to his audience something different—something new in TV—the spectacular of spectaculars! It will be a musical, mystery, dramatic, sports and news presentation all wrapped into one.

And what a show it is going to be! The first hour and one-half will be completely musical, starring handsome Butch Grabowski and the lovely Rose Turner. If they are very lucky, they hope to obtain the outstanding Metropolitan Opera personalities—Raymond Sevigny and Jean Pietryka also. Naturally a musical wouldn't be complete without lovely dancing girls so Joe got right on the phone and called the manager of the Rockets—Gus Gola. Gus said he could spare the gorgeous Helen Austin, Winifred Angier, Marilyn Lewis, Rosemary Fonseca, and possibly Betsey Johnson. Albert Fish suggested that Joseph Kurant be put in complete charge of these lovely ladies.

The next three and one-half hours of the spectacular will be a dramatic mystery play with Thomas Orzell as the leading man and the beautiful Dorcas Persons as his leading lady. Unfortunately Tom is murdered. The audience will be led to believe that the crime is committed by the butler, Peter LeFevre, and the cook, Carol Dodds, but it turns out that poor Tom is bumped off by Paul Trepanier because he wouldn't let him copy his homework.

The setting of this mystery play will take place in Whipple Hollow at a beautiful ski resort managed by Karl Larson and Margaret White. Karl retired last year after winning ten straight ski Olympics in a row. Actually, he was politely asked to do so, preferably, to give the Russians a chance. To hold the interest of the audience, famous sports personalities will supposedly be visiting the resort at the time of the murder. They are none other than Robert Pietryka, William Boutwell, Robert Foster, Richard Werchenski, and John Rogers, with one sport commentator, Peter Burke. The lovely maids running around the place will be Esther Carlson, Virginia Kean, Jane Kosmider, Carol Bailey, and Catherine Farrell. Actually they will be doing very little work—only looking beautiful in a scenic sort of way.

Of course somebody has to sponsor this whole deal which will probably run into millions and millions of cold cash. Getting sponsors will be the full responsibility of Francis Giebutowski. This seems to be no problem at all for Gibbo because he has a couple of elegant sponsors in mind. The Country Corn Flakes Company has agreed to stand behind the musical, providing their commercials can be sung entirely by Joan Weaver and William Kehoe. And then he's almost sure the Ajax Company will sponsor the other half of the Spectacular if they can get Edward Hyjek to be the knight on the white horse.

So, folks, if you are around in the year 2004 and have nothing to do for five hours or so, be sure to turn your TV set on and watch the "Spectacular of Spectaculars." We'll be expecting you!

Class Pastimes

- WINIFRED ANGIER--Winnie was always arguing with anyone who would argue with her. How many times did you win, Winnie?
- HELEN AUSTIN--Helen and her wisecracks kept the Senior homeroom alive every morning. Miss Hinchey didn't always appreciate it, did she, Helen?
- CAROL BAILEY--Carol could always be seen riding around with John in the '57 Chevy. That is an interesting car, isn't it!
- JANET BARON--Janet spent most of her time walking home from school. That walk seemed pretty long at times, didn't it, Janet?
- WILLIAM BOUTWELL--Bill divided his time between the class presidency and Virginia. Which was more fun, Bill?
- ESTHER CARLSON--Esther's time was divided among cheering, marching, the Dance Committee, Miss Yager, and Ollie. We guess it's not hard to say which you enjoyed most, right, Esther?
- MARILYN CHAPMAN--Marilyn spent her time cheering the team on to victory. You were always there when we needed you.
- CAROL DODDS--Carol spent her spare time trying to figure out how she could grow taller. That half an inch last year helped, didn't it, Carol?
- CATHERINE FARRELL--Cathy spent her time sitting in the lockers and cheering everybody up. Thanks, Cathy, we needed it!
- ALBERT FISH--Al always kept everyone laughing. Are you going to be a comedy writer, Al?
- ROSEMARY FONSECA--Tex's time was spent out of doors hunting. Do you have your rifles all cleaned for next year?
- ROBERT FOSTER--Bob was always in the gymnasium playing basketball. It helped to improve your shooting, didn't it, Bob?
- FRANCIS GIEBUTOWSKI--Gibbo devoted his time to the Green and Gold. Did you get all the ink off your hands and face yet?
- AUGUSTYN GOLA--Gus was the "Great White Hunter" of our class. Your home freezer must be full of wild game.
- KENNETH GRABOWSKI--Butch was always singing and snapping his fingers. How many recording contracts have you turned down because of school, Butch?
- EDWARD HYJEK--Eddie had a hard time trying to find something to do. What are you doing now, Eddie?
- BETSEY JOHNSON--Betsey spent most of her time trying to figure out what to do over the weekend. You always found something, didn't you, Betsey?
- VIRGINIA KEAN--Virginia could be found working in Ballard's Store. You sure were an asset to them, Virginia.
- WILLIAM KEHOE--Bill kept busy working on the farm. Is everything in order, Bill?

- JANE KOSMIDER--Jane was forever working for Miss Yager or Mr. Hinchey. Good practice for your working days, Jane.
- JOSEPH KURANT--Joe was always going someplace with his car. You surely burned a lot of gas, Joe.
- JAY LANFEAR--Jay spent plenty of time keeping his hair in shape. We bet you didn't have any trouble keeping it red.
- KARL LARSON--Karl tried to teach the Ski Club members how to ski. You did a good job, Karl!
- PETER LEFEVRE--Pete spent time burning gas and keeping quiet. You did a good job at both, Pete!
- MARILYN LEWIS--Marilyn's favorite pastime was going to stores and trying on clothes. Marilyn was also a great seamstress.
- THOMAS ORZELL--Tommy bought records galore. Thanks to you, Tom, we had a great variety at our dances.
- DORCAS PERSONS--Dorcas spent most of her time just being quiet. Dorcas, we know there must have been times when you let off some steam.
- JEAN PIETRYKA--Jeanie could be found leading the band in parades. You were a keen Drum Majorette, Jeanie.
- ROBERT PIETRYKA--Ollie brought the mail to school every morning. Were the packages very heavy, Bob?
- JOSEPH PRZYBYLO--Joe spent his time broadcasting on his home radio set. We know you will be a great disc jockey some day.
- JOHN ROGERS--Slick was always trying to put his ideas across. You surely did it in a hurry, Slick!
- RAYMOND SEVIGNY--Ray was our class "chauffeur." Whether he went skiing, to a dance, to a game, or anyplace at all he had a carload of kids with him.
- DIANE TAYLOR--Diane was the scientist of our class. Di's projects always won a prize at the Science Fairs.
- PAUL TREPANIER--Trep was always busy fixing one of his cars. They were all running good at one time, weren't they, Trep?
- ROSE TURNER--Rosie was the actress of our class. You played those scenes as you were in everyday life.
- JOAN WEAVER--Joannie spent her time being the mailwoman for the Senior girls and even the teachers. Thanks for licking all of those stamps, Joannie.
- RICHARD WERCHENSKI--Dick spent his time trying not to think about skiing during basketball season. We're glad you stayed on the court, Dick!
- MARGARET WHITE--Marg devoted her time to representing Westside at one convention or another. We're sure you left a good impression of Westside wherever you went, Marg!

THE 1963 gridiron team had a fairly successful year. They won two out of six games. This was the first time they won in three years.

They began the season by losing to the Blue Devils in Poultney. After a close first half, which saw the Devils leading 7-0, Poultney went on to a 28-7 victory. A pass from Butch Grabowski to Bill Boutwell was Westside's only touchdown. Dick Werchenski scored the extra point.

The next game saw Westside traveling to play Fair Haven on Fair Haven's new field. The Horde was whipped 36-0.

Our third game was the first home game for the Horde. The Horde's morale was riding high, and they gave Burr and Burton a 39-0 trimming. Ollie Pietryka got two touchdowns and scored another on an intercepted pass. Bill Boutwell caught a touchdown pass, and Jim Urbano and Dick Werchenski each scored a touchdown. The three extra points were scored by John Rogers, Dick Werchenski, and Stanley Grabowski.

Our fourth game was the toughest of the year. We think we played our best game, although in a losing cause. We lost this game to Woodstock 19-7. Ollie Pietryka caught a touchdown pass for Westside's only score. Butch Grabowski went over the line for the extra point.

Our fifth was a return encounter with Burr and Burton in Manchester. This time we found them to be a much stronger team. The final score was 12-9 in a hard-fought contest. Jim Urbano ran 60 yards for our first touchdown. Then Ollie Pietryka caught another pass from quarterback Butch Grabowski and scored, which accounts for our victory. This put Pietryka into the lead in the M. V. L. scoring race.

Our final game proved to be romping for the Blue Devils at Hinchey Field. In the first half the Devils scored 28 points. In the second half the Horde held them scoreless in a game that finished with a score of 28-7. Dick Werchenski scored our touchdown and Bill Boutwell the extra point.

Congratulations go to Ollie Pietryka for being fourth highest scorer in the M.V.L.

THE PAST season was a good one for the Golden Horde of West Rutland. The team was composed of five seniors, one junior and six sophomores.

The Horde did not have pre-season games as usual because of two more Class "L" entries, Bennington Catholic and Otter Valley Union High Schools. This meant that the Horde had to play 18 class "L" games, leaving only two non-league games which were played with Proctor.

West Rutland ended in a four way tie for third place in the Southern Vermont League with a record of 13-7 league and 14-8 over-all record.

The Horde opened the season with a home standing battle against the Sabers of Bennington Catholic, which they lost 56-43. In the next game with Proctor the Horde waltzed to a 60-33 score.

The Horde then moved back to S.V.L. teams, winning the next five games. Starting with Brattleboro, they beat the Colonels 55-44. Bill Boutwell, our star forward, netted 20 points. Next the homestanding Leamymen beat O.V.U.H.S. 87-53. Ollie Pietryka and Bill Boutwell swished the nets for 25 and 22 points, respectively.

Bellows Falls was the next victim of the Horde. Westside pulled out this squeaker by a score of 49-46. Ollie Pietryka scored 25 counters for the Golden Horde.

The Cosmos of Springfield then invaded the Horde. This was a close game with the Horde coming out on top, 69-68. Ollie Pietryka and Bill Boutwell were high for the Hordemen, with 26 and 22 points. Bennington then came and the Horde trampled them 68-37.

After these victories the Horde traveled to Windsor where they were shocked by the Yellow Jackets 78-72. After this experience the Westsiders played League Champs M.S.J. at West Rutland. This was a close game all the way with the Horde losing by one point 63-62. Bill Boutwell was the Horde's mainstay with 22 counters. West Rutland then played Rutland to humble them 52-28.

With the half way mark over, the Golden Horde traveled to Bennington to play Bennington Catholic with a 7-3 record. As before the Sabers overwhelmed Westside 51-38.

After this loss, Westside won the next five games. They beat the Rutland Raiders 60-51. High point getter for the Horde was Ollie Pietryka with 21 points. After Rutland came Brattleboro in which the Golden Horde came out with a 65-47 slaughter. Again Ollie was high with 23 points.

Then the Proctor Phantoms came to the Horde's outpost to be overtaken 80-50 by the sharp-shooting Horde. Four men hit double digits. Bob Foster 15, Ollie Pietryka 14, Bill Boutwell 13, and Jim Brytowski 11.

Next the Westsiders ventured to the O.V.U.H.S. gym. Here they trampled the Otters 70-35. High for the Horde were Bill Boutwell with 18 and Ollie with 17.

Playing at home the Horde overwhelmed defending S.V.L. champs Bellows Falls, 73-51. Bill Boutwell was high point getter with 25.

The winning streak was broken by the Cosmos of Springfield to the tune of 72-58. In this slump the Horde was humiliated by the Bennington Catamounts 69-67. This was a game where the Horde didn't seem to do anything right.

Looking for revenge against Windsor, the Horde backed by Pietryka's 28 points and Boutwell's 20, beat the Yellow Jackets 80-74.

In the last game of the season for Bill Boutwell, Ollie Pietryka, Bob Foster, John Rogers, and Dick Werchenski, the Horde tackled M.S.J. Although they fought hard they were humbled 63-51. Bill Boutwell was high man with 23 points.

Westside, qualifying for the "M" Tournament, was given a second place seeding in the tourney. The Horde played Wallingford first. The S.V.L. experience of the Horde proved superior to Wallingford's M.V.L. experience. The Leamymen overwhelmed the Foxes 66-40. Ollie and Bill hit for 20 and 15 points, respectively.

Playing for the Southern "M" Championship, the Horde met Poultney, last year's runner-up. Loosing a nine point halftime lead, the Horde lost by a score of 55-49, being the runner-up. Reczek had 17 points to lead the attack for the Horde.

The All-Tourney team consisted of Bill Boutwell and Ed Reczek of West Rutland and three Poultney players.

Ollie Pietryka and Bill Boutwell placed in the top ten scorers of the Southern Vermont League. Ollie was third with 368 points and an average of 18.3 points a game. Bill was eighth with 304 points and an average of 15.4 points. Ollie and Bill also made the S.V.L. ALL-STAR TEAMS. Ollie made the first team and Bill made the third team.
